

The True Seed

'A new pastor moved into town and went out one Saturday to visit his parishioners. All went well until he came to one house. It was obvious that someone was home, but no one came to the door even after he had knocked several times. Finally, he took out his card and wrote on the back: Revelation 3:20 and stuck it in the door. The next day, as he was counting the offering[, in the collection plate] he found his card [that he had left at that house] Below his message was the notation Genesis 3:10. Revelation 3:20 reads: "Behold I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear my voice, and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me". Genesis 3:10 reads: "And he said, I heard Thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked".' // Well, at least they knew their Bible!

But consider, just why were Adam, and Eve, afraid to be seen by God when naked? Why is being naked shameful, humiliating or embarrassing? At its most basic, adult nakedness is reserved exclusively for one's spouse. And that's because the husband-wife marriage relationship is a sacred bound, a sacred covenant. It's the most intimate, loving, trusting relationship possible between human beings. Complete trust, honesty, mutual dependence and interdependence. It's a unity of two lives becoming a single life. Christ Himself described it as illustrating the very relationship of God with His people, of Christ with His church. So that's the answer. Because Adam and Eve had disobeyed God, rebelled against His Word, their intimate relationship with God, their effective union of life itself with God was broken. Before, they'd always met with God every evening in perfect harmony, bliss, and love, now they suddenly found themselves self-conscious, embarrassed and afraid. Such fear is not and never will be from God. For the righteous, there is no fear with God. Fear comes only upon people who arrogantly attempt to stand in opposition to the God of All Creation. A puny man or woman, microscopic creature in comparison to the infinite vastness of God, who assert their very vaporous existence is somehow important enough for God to notice them, and live on to oppose God's will, are the most deluded, deceived and deprived of humanity. There are way too many of such people living today.

They'll all be swept away into the bottomless drain that drops them straight into endless darkness in an eternal hell. They've all been deceived by satan's huge construct of lies that obscures the love of God at every turn, from every viewpoint. Some of them, if presented with the Truth of the Gospel, will hear, believe, repent of their sins, and be saved. But time is running out for billions of poor souls as the end of this age fast approaches. Just like Adam and Eve, they've for now, bought the bill of goods satan has been selling and exchanged the truth for a lie. And they sin. And the paycheck for sin is death. We all physically die, but their death is to be taken captive by the spirit of death for all time. It's the very opposite of all the wondrous beauties which is Father God.

Note that when God calls out to Adam and Eve, as they're trying to hide from Him, a futile gesture if there ever was one, as God sees all and knows all, Adam answers by blaming his wife. This woman that God had given him had given him the fruit and he ate it, implying that he can't really be responsible because if she hadn't given him the fruit, then he wouldn't have eaten it. So God asks Eve why she did it. And Eve, just like humans are wont to pass the blame onto someone else, also passed the buck blaming the serpent for having tricked her, and she fell for his trick, implying it was really all the serpent's fault. God doesn't debate her defective point but immediately pronounces judgement on the serpent, knowing that the serpent has no one else to blame! For there's no one else there!!

God now removes the blessings the serpent originally had. Ancient fossil remains and drawings surrounding Jerusalem reveal that originally all serpents, snakes, had legs and walked on land, and could actually stand upright. Notice how Eve describes the serpent, as the "shining snake", meaning satan indwelling this animal was exceedingly beautiful, at a cursory glance even somewhat resembling Father God Himself in glory. Eons later, Apostle Paul tells us in II Corinthians 11:14 that "satan transforms himself to appear as an angel of light!" It's clear it's the same culprit, up to his old tricks. he got Eve, and now he's gotten way too many people. But back then, this snake, this dragon, originally with legs, which is the way he was unknowingly depicted in ancient Chinese illustrations, and still to this day, though they think of them as bringing good, not devilish, not satan; and in Western illustrations with both legs and wings, was at that point cursed by God, stripping the snake of his limbs, rendering him and all future offspring limbless, forced to crawl on their bellies on the ground for all their lives. Never again will a reptile appear so shining, beautiful, beguiling, that humanity will be deceived. Until now.

So, did satan crawl back into a hole, sulk and give up? Unfortunately, he did not. his affinity for reptilian snakes never ceased. If anything, it actually increased. he was so incensed with God that he swore he would somehow get even. There were so many "injustices" in his mind that God had committed against him. Or so he thought. So he would, by hook and by crook, thwart God's plans. For in Genesis 3:15, God pronounced the future judgement: "I will place great hostility between you and the woman, and between her Seed and yours. He will crush your head as you crush His heel". his head being crushed, as we saw some years ago, means death, defeat, and decimation. "But no, he would survive; he would escape that judgement. Somehow." The Seed of the woman, now what was that? Women don't have seed, only men do. But in retrospect we now know what God actually meant. For Christ Jesus was born of a woman, having had no human father, but Father God Himself as His spiritual, heavenly, “earthly” Father, our Savior and Lord is indeed the Seed of the woman, whose name we now know is Mary, Miriam in Hebrew.

God also tells the snake that its “seed” would bruise the heel of the woman’s Seed. We now know that is referring to the crucifixion of Christ Jesus on the cross of Calvary. But back then, well no one but God actually knew what He meant. So the devil devised his plan. If it was going to be a descendant of the woman, a human man, since God had used the male pronoun, it would have to be a Man. So the devil determined that he would thwart God’s plan, if somehow destroying the Seed itself failed, which seems not possible because of the way God phrased His pronouncement, then by so disfiguring, deforming, distorting the woman’s seed that this future Seed would turn out to be unable to crush satan’s head at all! Ingenious! Cut the future seed off at the pass! He’d come but not be all He was billed to be! So, send in the fallen angels. Let them “marry” the human women, pollute the gene pool, produce offspring, seed now tainted with evil angelic DNA, and inbreed into them the same seething hatred of humanity that satan himself has. So not only do they deface future humanity, but at the same time bring forth creatures, all the better if they’re very reptile-like, snake-like, which will kill, eat and sacrifice as many humans as possible along the way. And make the humans do it themselves! Cause them to be so deluded that they think they’re worshipping God by sacrificing their own children to the snake god!! Cause them to build great snake altars and monuments and sculptures and drawings and artworks all over the world. Reminders everywhere that the real god is a snake. And his real name is satan, but other aliases will be fun, too.

Well, folks, that all happened. Giants were born. Some did not even look human, as the Bible describes them, when they terrified the spies Moses sent out to inspect the then as yet unconquered Promised Land. Turns out it was infested with those half-human, half-angel hybrid giants. When Joshua and the Israelites finally conquered much of the land, they eliminated most of the giants. But not all. Many escaped to other places in the world. I theorize that even now a scarce few still remain, still hiding in arctic wastes and dense forests, rarely being sighted and called by names such as Yeti, Big Foot, etc. They're all part of the devil's seed, the false seed. And his ultimate, final seed will be the prophesied anti-Christ who will stand in the soon-to-be rebuilt third Temple in Jerusalem and proclaim himself as God. Though he will be "shining", miraculous, and appear like a god, he is anything but. We must, before we are raptured away, warn people to expect him, and under no circumstances to take this beast's mark, which will consign themselves permanently to eternal hell.

For as Christ Jesus the Lord is the One True Seed, those of us who join His family, become part of Him, the True Seed, as Lord Jesus declared in Mark 3:35: "For whoever does the will of God is My brother, My sister, and My mother!" Be sure you are!
